

Evolving Group Dentistry 2024: Bridging Gaps, Building Futures

Empowering Leaders at the Nexus of Business and Dentistry

SCOTTSDALE, AZ – The much-anticipated Evolving Group Dentistry 2024 conference, presented by Heidi Arndt, is set to take center stage from May 9 to 11 at The Fairmont Princess in Scottsdale, AZ. This exclusive event, designed for leaders at the intersection of business and dentistry, promises to be a game-changer for dental professionals looking to elevate their practices.

"Evolving Group Dentistry is not just another dental conference. It's a unique platform where business meets dentistry, offering attendees a chance to gain insider knowledge from experts on a range of topics, from best management practices to the latest technological innovations," says Heidi, the Multisite Dental Executive and Founder of Evolving Group Dentistry. With over two decades of experience in building and managing multi-location dental groups, Heidi is passionate about bridging clinical excellence with overall business success.

The conference's mission is clear: to serve as a connection point for leaders aiming to drive financial success for their clinicians and stakeholders, ensuring they can better serve their patients. This aligns with the event's tagline, "Bridging Gaps, Building Futures."

Attendees can look forward to a fireside chat between Heidi and Dr. Rick Workman, DMD, Founder and Executive Chairman of Heartland Dental. This conversation promises to delve deep into the challenges and opportunities facing the dental industry today.

Other notable speakers include:

- Dr. Eric Tobler, the National Clinical Director for Mortenson Dental Partners, who brings a wealth of experience in comprehensive dentistry and has been an active participant in dental humanitarian trips across the globe.
- Dr. Jennifer Dorse, a cosmetic dentistry expert who has changed thousands of smiles worldwide and is a mentor at the renowned Kois Center in Seattle, WA.
- Dr. M. Ray Scott, Jr., a seasoned dental professional with a rich history in both solo and group practice settings, having led multiple dental groups through significant growth phases.
- Bill Neumann, CEO at Group Dentistry Now, who boasts 20 years of experience in the dental industry and has been a pivotal figure in dental product innovation and DSO consultancy.

The three-day event promises not only knowledge-sharing sessions but also invaluable networking opportunities, allowing attendees to connect with peers and industry experts.
